DU Provost body to resist students' entry to halls

By Our DU Correspondent

Dhaka University Provost Committee in a meeting Friday decided to resist the students who will try to enter residential halls.

Presided over by Prof Abu Zafar Mahmood the Provost of Fazlul Haq Hall, the meeting also expressed concern over the news of University reopening published in different dailies.

They termed the news as puzzling, they said that they would not be able to open the university student dormitories without the decision of the Syndicate.

Meanwhile, members of Dhaka University Education Action Committee (DUEAC) would enter their respective halls today

(Saturday) and stay there for seven hours from 10 am as a mark of protest against frequent closure of the University.

DUEAC will hold a rally in front of the arts faculty building at 10 am before going to the halls.

DUEAC urged the general students to participate the programme and make it a success.

Chhatra Oikya Forum at a meeting Friday urged the concerned authorities for reopening of the all closed educational institutions of the country immediately.

Presided over by Forum President S.M. Awal, the meeting also expressed grave concern over the prevailing situation of all educational institutions of the country.
