BCL RALLY

UNB adds: Leaders of the pro-Awami League Chhatra League Sunday alleged that the government were trying to harbour armed elements on the campus to destroy a possible student movement.

At a rally in front of the Burma to hold gem sale

RANGOON, Aug 2: Burma will hold an international gem sale in October to market its high-quality stones and made some of them from newly discovered deposits, the state-run working People's Daily reported.

DUCSU Bhaban of Dhaka University Sunday afternoon they said attempts were being made to tarnish the image to BCL.

The rally was addressed by BCL General Secretary Iqbalur Rahim, DU Unit President KHIM Liza and General Secretary Pankaj Devnath.

The BCL leaders said, "the authorities were instigating a violent situation by giving shelter to the killers of Badal and allowing free trade of arms on the campus."

They further alleged that Jamaat-Shibir killed Ratan Sen and demanded immediate arrest and death penalty of the killers.

Speakers called upon the people as well as students to build up a resistance against the Jamaat-Shibir and the terrorists.
