DU peace rally today

The Dhaka University students teachers and employees will bring out a peace procession today (Saturday) with a call to maintain communal harmony in view of the historic Babri Mosque demolition and communal riots in India, reports BSS.

The procession to be led by University Vice-Chancellor will start from the Aparajeyo Bangla premises at 11 a.m, a university press release said.

The university offices and classes will remain closed between 11 am and 12 noon to facilitate the students teachers and employees in joining the procession.

PROGRAMMES

Dhaka University authorities have chalked out elaborate programmes to observe the forthcoming Shaheed Intellectual Day and Victory Day, according to a University press release Saturday.

The programmes in observance of the Intellectual Day include placing of wreaths at the Intellectual Monument at 7 am. Discussion meet at TSC at 10 and special prayers, for the peace of the departed souls of shaheed intellectual at the University Mosque after johor prayer.

The Victory Day programmes of the University include hoisting of National Flag at the university buildings offering wreaths at the national mausoleum at Savar and prayers for the peace of the departed souls of those who sacrificed their lives in the War of Liberation and the prosperity of the country.
