Help restore DU's past glory.

Social Welfare and Women's Affairs Minister Tariqul Islam Sunday called upon the new students to help restore the past glory and heritage of Dhaka University, reports BSS.

He was addressing a freshers' reception organised by Dhaka University non-resident students association at TSC in Dhaka.

The Minister said university students of the country had played the most important role at the critical juncture of the country and they could restore smooth academic atmosphere with their sincere efforts.

He urged the students to nurture democracy in every sphere of their academic activities and develop healthy teachers-students relations.

Mr Islam also called upon the students to establish peace and discipline in the university and help curb anti-social activities from the academic arena.

Vice-Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof Emajuddin Ahmed, State Minister for Law, Justice and Parliamentary Affairs Barrister Aminul Huq, General Secretary of DUCSU Khairul Kabir Khokon and Transport Secretary of DUCSU Khandaker Jahangir Alam also spoke on the occasion.
