JCD leader shot dead at Ctg

From Our Staff Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Sept 23

Moazzem Hossain Mithu, former General Secretary of Chittagong Polytechnic Institute Students Union, was shot dead at Chittagong Medical College compound at 6 pm today.

Mithu went to visit Manirul Huq, Vice-President of the Students Union of Chittagong Polytechnic Institute, at Medical College Hospital.

According to police, a group of armed youngmen attacked Mithu and shot him with an automatic fire weapon near Female Students' Hostel.

Earlier in the morning, a group of students attacked and injured Manirul Huq in the office room of the Principal of the institute. He was admitted to Medical College Hospital with multiple injuries.

Both the student leaders belonged to Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal, the student front of BNP. Chhatra Dal held the armed miscreants belonging to pro-Awami League students group Bangladesh Chhatra League, responsible for the attack on Chhatra Dal leaders.

Chhatra Dal supporters staged demonstration in the port city and on the campus protesting the killing of Mithu and attack on Manirul Huq. The angry demonstrators also damaged some vehicles and shops in the city.
