Reduction of Islamiaat marks in primary, secondary education levels condemned

By A Staff Reporter

Maulana Motiur Rahman Nizami, Secretary General of Jamaat-e-Islami Bangladesh in a statement on Tuesday condemned the government decision to introduce 50 marks for Islamiaat in primary and secondary education instead of 100 marks.

Maulana Nizami said, Chief Advisor of the Caretaker Government Justice Habibur Rahman had taken the decision to introduce 50 marks instead of 100 marks in Islamiaat in secondary and primary level which reflected his "anti-

"Islamic personality," he said. "It was out of jurisdiction of the caretaker government and moreover it has destroyed the neutrality of the caretaker government," he added.

He alleged that the present government has decided to introduce "Sristi-Karta" instead of Allah in text books. It is also an anti-Islamic decision, he said.
