

2nd national science, week begins

By Our Varsity Correspondent

The second National Science Week organized by National Association for Science & Technology began on Friday all over the country. Highlight of the week includes exhibitions, science fairs and discussions meetings.

In Dacca city science fairs have been organised in four centres — Jagannath College, Teachers' Training College, Titumir College and Khilgaon Girls' High School. Students of schools, colleges and science clubs are participating.