Students of Comilla University blocked Dhaka-Chittagong highway for more than an hour yesterday, demanding arrest and punishment of those involved in the attack on their university bus at Badurtola in the town on Sunday evening.

The agitated students blocked the highway in Nandanpur area from 11:00am and halted the vehicular movement on the highway till 12:15pm, police said.

The students also staged a demonstration on the university campus and boycotted their scheduled classes and examinations protesting the attack on their fellows.

On information, Comilla Additional Superintendent of Police (South) Abdullah Al Mamun rushed to the spot and assured the demonstrators of taking action against the culprits involved in the attack within 24 hours.

Following the assurance of the ASP the students removed their barricades from the highway.
