

তারিখ JAN. 19 2000
পৃষ্ঠা ১৩ কলাম ৬

CU exams postponed

CHITTAGONG, Jan 18:— Chittagong University authorities have postponed several examinations due to unavoidable circumstances, a university Press release said here, reports BSS. The postponed examinations are—M.Com preliminary-1997, second year B.Sc. (honours)-1998, M.SS preliminary of 1997, M.SS final of 1996 and M.A. final English-1996.

All these examinations were scheduled to be held between January 18 and 24.

Fresh dates for these examinations will be announced in due time.

Admission form snatched

Some miscreants snatched away 11,700 admission forms of Chittagong University for first year honours class students from a university employee at Kapasgola, a University Press release said.

The snatchers numbering six were staying at Agrani Bank, Kapasgola branch gate. When the university employee reached the bank gate for depositing the forms the miscreants snatched away the papers from him. The University authorities have cancelled the forms.

13