Fake certificates, marksheets recovered

MYMENSINGH, Jan. 21: Plain clothes men recovered huge forged certificates and mark-sheets of public examinations under different education boards from a house in the town on Thursday night, reports UNB.

Acting on a tip-off, a police squad raided the rented house of Helaluddin alias Golam Sarwar at Mirbari on the College Road.

They arrested him along with huge fake certificates, mark-sheets, admission and registration forms of National University, madrassah and technical education boards and different schools and colleges.

Some 55 answer scripts of degree examinations under the National University and 10 certificates of Muktiyoddha Sangsad Central Command Council signed by the Prime Minister and Tk 39,000 in cash were also recovered during the raid, police said.
