SSC examinees in Ctg agitate for second day

From Staff Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, May 17: Police arrested 10 more SSC examinees when they staged demonstrations and damaged some vehicles at different places here.

Police said the students staged demonstrations in the city and its surrounding areas protesting cancellation of SSC examinations on two papers held recently.

During the demonstrations the agitating students put up barricades on the Dhaka-Chittagong highway at Mirersharai point for about one hour from 11 am.

Later police removed the barricades and arrested six students while they started to damage some vehicles. Police arrested four others from Ice Factory Road while they were damaging passing vehicles.

Meanwhile, the SSC examinees called a 'students strike' in Chittagong tomorrow, protesting the decision of cancellation of SSC examinations on two papers.

They also called a half-day hartal in Chittagong on Tuesday.
