

Madrasa teacher held for abusing boy sexually

Headmaster arrested for rape attempt on girl

STAR COUNTRY DESK

A madrasa teacher was held in Jessore on Friday on charge of assaulting a male student sexually.

Meanwhile, police arrested a school headmaster of Jhalakathi yesterday on charge of attempting to rape a female student.

Arrestee Hafez Khobayer Uddin, 42, is a teacher of Andulia Hafizia Madrasa at Andulia village in Jessore's Chaugachha upazila, reports our Benapole correspondent.

Police said Khobayer sexually assaulted the boy in his bedroom on Thursday night. The victim revealed the brutality to his parents the following day.

On information, locals caught Khobayer from his rented house at Andulia village.

In Jhalakathi, a headmaster of Sadar upazila was held yesterday on charge of attempting to rape a female student, reports our correspondent.

The arrestee is Md Shahidul Islam, headmaster of Chanbaru High School at Bashonda in Sadar upazila.

Police arrested him from Palordi of Barisal's Gouranodi in the morning, said Tajul Islam, OC of Jhalakathi Sadar Police Station.

The seventh grader went to the headmaster's coaching centre at Parmahal regularly for private tuition. Shahidul often sexually harassed the girl when he taught her, said police and locals.

On August 18, the teacher attempted to rape the girl and locals rescued her sensing the situation, said the OC.
