Showcause notices on 5 DU students

By DU Correspondent

The Dhaka University authorities have served showcause notices on five students of Ziaur Rahman Hall, for assaulting a second year student at the hall on Tuesday, said a press release.

The students are Momin Uddin of Political Science Department, Sheikh Farid of International Relations Department, Selim and Sajjad Hosain of History Department and Monir of Bangla Department.

The authorities asked them to reply within seven days why they should not be expelled from the university. In case of their failure, they will be expelled, the press release added.

The five accused beat up Faruq Sikder and hit him with sharp weapons when he protested their non-payment of bills after taking meal at the hall canteen.

The authorities also formed a three-member committee to investigate the incident. Headed by senior house tutor of the hall Md Selim Bhuiyan, the probe body includes Dr Main Uddin Kamal and Abdul Halim.
