DU serves show cause notice on 3 students

By DU Correspondent

The Dhaka University authorities served a show cause notice on three students on why they should not be expelled from the university, as they were involved in beating up a resident of Jagannath Hall.

The students are Sanjoy Kundu, a second year student of Botanical Science Department, Sanjib Chakrabarty, second year student of Department of Sanskrit and Pali and Ripon Podder, second year student of Political Science.

The students beat up and stabbed Provat Sutradhar, a resident of room no 220 of Jagannath Hall, following an altercation near Shamsunnahar Hall of the university on Tuesday.

Provat Sutradhar was expelled from the university on Monday as he was admitted in the Political Science Department by fake documents.
