MPO of 48 schools cancelled for 'no pass' in SSC exam

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

The government Monthly Pay Orders (MPO) to 48 educational institutions, mostly girls high schools of Dinajpur, Thakurgaon, Panchagarh and Joypurhat, have been cancelled as they had zero percent pass rate in the 2007 SSC exams.

The education ministry urged Rajshahi Education Board to take stern administrative actions against these 48 institutions for failing to obtain satisfactory results.

Sources in the deputy commissioners' offices said 17 institutes of Dinajpur had their MPOs cancelled, 14 in Thakurgaon and 16 in Panchagarh and one in Joypurhat.

The 17 institutes of Dinajpur are

Adarsha High School, Manmathapur MR Girls High School, Maddha, Magura Kathalpara High School, Belghat High School, Sadarpur High School, Habra Girls High School, Azampur High School, Kushdah-Hilirdanga Girls High School, Kamarpura High School, Nawkhayer Adarsha High School, Harinandapur High School, Doulatpur Union Girls High School, Goalpara Girls High School, Mahanpur Girls High School, Nalbari Girls High School, Baladangi High School, Ishanpur Girls High School and Kodalkathi High School.

The 14 institutes of Thakurgaon are Karnit High School, Bahot High School, Jhargao Girls High School, Molankuri Girls High
