Another RU teacher gets death threat

RU CORRESPONDENT

Another Rajshahi University teacher yesterday received a death threat in an anonymous letter for writing a book on the War of Liberation recently.

The teacher said he found the letter in his personal office room at 10:30am. There is no name or address in the letter but only a word "Lal Barta" written on the envelop, he added. Later, the teacher informed it to the university authorities and filed a general diary with Motihar Police Station.

Proctor Prof Mujibul Haque Azad Khan said police have been given necessary instructions to look into the matter. "We have also asked them to increase the intelligence network on the campus to reduce such type of incident," said the proctor.

Officer-in-Charge Humayun Kabir said they were giving importance to the matter.

Two RU teachers received death threats within 27 days of Prof Rezaul Karim Siddiquee murder. On May 8, another got a death threat over the mobile phone.
