

DU to celebrate anniversary tomorrow

UNB, Dhaka

The Dhaka University Day will be observed on the campus tomorrow with great enthusiasm and festivity, marking the 96th founding anniversary of the country's highest seat of learning.

DU Vice-chancellor Prof Dr AAMS Arefin Siddique will inaugurate the daylong programme in the morning.

The university authorities will bring out processions, discussions, cultural sessions, sports and debate competitions to mark the day.

Processions will be brought out from the residential halls of the university at 10 am while the national flag, DU flag and flags of different halls will be hoisted at 10:15 am.

Later, teachers and students will gather at the Mall Chattar near the Administrative Bhaban and proceed towards the Teacher-Student Centre (TSC) in a procession.

DU Library will arrange an exhibition on rare manuscripts from 10 am to 1 pm.

Academic activities of the university commenced on July 1, 1921.
