6 injured in Shibir-BCL clash on CU campus

CU Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, Jan 20:—At least 6 students were injured, one of them seriously when police resorted to heavy baton-charge to disperse two warring groups of students in front of Arts Faculty in Chittagong University today.

A contingent of police led by Hathazari thana Officer-in-Charge swung into action when two rival student groups belonging to the Chhatra League and Islami Chhatra Shibir got locked in clash. The police after a heavy lathi-charge dispersed the unruly students.

The clash between the two rival groups occurred following a rally of the Shibir supporters on the campus.

Of the injured students, Kamal, a Third year student of Philosophy Department with serious injuries was admitted to the Chittagong Medical College Hospital.

Meanwhile, the Shibir continued to lay siege to the Main Gate of Chittagong University for consecutive sixth day today.

In the face of resistance of Shibir men, the plying of both shuttle trains and buses to the campus came to a halt.
