

Firing at SM hall

DU Correspondent

At least 15 rounds were fired at Salimullah hall of Dhaka University due to internal feuds of Awami League backed Chhatra League (A-A) yesterday (Saturday) evening.

None, however, was injured.

Chhatra League (A-A) sources, however, gave a different version of the incident.

They said some activists of the organisation, after escaping a bid to 'arrest' them from TSC area, returned to the hall and fired shots.

Other sources said the firing was the consequence of factional feuds within Chhatra League.

Later, activists of the organisation brought out a procession protesting the firing.

109