Gunshots rock DU campus

DU Correspondent

Dhaka University campus was rocked by a series of gunshots again on Friday night and early yesterday (Saturday).

Sounds of gunshots were heard from Surya Sen, Mohsin, Zia, Jashimuddin and Mujib hall areas late Friday night. Rattles of gunfire were also heard from the same areas early yesterday morning.

None, however, was injured and it could not be ascertained who were involved in the firings.

Meanwhile, BSS says, the convener of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) and DUCSU vice president Amanullah Aman yesterday strongly protested the filing of false cases against JCD leader Ilyas Ali and 15 others in connection with the killing of Chhatra League (A-A) worker Mizan during the recent disturbance in the campus.

Mr Amanullah Aman, who is also an MP, in a statement here demanded the immediate arrest and punishment of the real killers of Mizan.

The JCD convener said it is believed that Mizan was a victim of factional rivalry.

He also urged the Chhatra League leaders to desist from making any provocative and confusing statement in this regard!
