~~Injunction on activities of CUTA~~

CHITTAGONG, Nov 30 (UNB): A court today issued an ad-interim injunction on the activities of a group of Chittagong University Teachers' Association which claimed to be the legal representatives of the teachers of the campus.

District Judge of Chittagong Khandker Abu Bakar issued the injunction upon a petition filed on November 28 by Prof Yusuf Sharif Ahmed Khan of a rival faction of the teachers' association.

The court asked both factions to maintain status quo until the case of the petitioner is heard.

Prof Khan was the President of a faction that won the last election of the association which ended its term long back. The teachers' group led by Khan is opposed to the present Vice Chancellor.

Prof Hamida Banu and Dr Istekhār are leading the faction, said to be pro VC, against which the court issued the injunction.
