Sylhet

A NEPALI student of a private medical college in the city has been missing for the last 13 days.

The missing student was identified as Sawgat Gewali, 26, a student of North East Medical College in the city.

The medical college sources said that Sawgat used to live in a room of 'Rupsha' building of the college hostel. The hostel authority found his room locked at night on November 10 last.

Later, as he did not return, Abdul Ahad, security in-charge of the college, filed a general diary with Dakhshin Surma police station on November 16. //
