

NSTU delegation meets president

United News of Bangladesh
Dhaka

A DELEGATION of Noakhali Science and Technology University led by its vice-chancellor Prof M Wahiduzzaman made a courtesy call on president Abdul Hamid at Bangabhaban on Wednesday.

During the meeting, the delegation apprised the president of overall activities of the university.

The VC informed the president that the NSTU has introduced the Bangladesh and Liberation War Studies department through which the students will be able to learn the real history of the Liberation War.

The president's press secretary Joynal Abedin briefed reporters after the meeting.

Abdul Hamid said Bangladesh is moving forward towards prosperity adding that the country needs human resources skilled in information technology.

He urged the universities of the country to devote their efforts with a view to developing skilled human resources.

Secretaries concerned to the president's office were present.