

PROFESSOR KILLING

Movement resumes at RU

RU Correspondent

TEACHERS and students of Rajshahi University on Saturday resumed their movement over the murder of Professor AFM Rezaul Karim Siddiquee after the 20-day summer vacation.

Earlier on May 17, following the assurance of ministers, including home minister and health minister, the English department and Rajshahi University Teachers' Association postponed their ongoing strike.

Over three hundred teachers and students of English department on Saturday morning brought out a procession on campus which paraded the main streets.

Later they held a short rally at Mukul Mancha, a makeshift platform set up after the nickname of the slain professor.

Addressing the rally, English department chair Professor Maswood Akhter declared that they would continue their movement on only Saturday until the 'perpetrators' were brought to book as Professor Siddiquee had been killed on Saturday.

Professor Muhammad Shahidullah, president of Rajshahi University Teachers' Association, said that 'they were not satisfied with what the law enforcement agencies so far did to find out the killers.

'We are not officially informed by the law enforcers about the progresses into the murder and we do not have the latest update of the case,' he added.

He also declared that

RUTA would hold a human chain on campus on June 6 from where they would declare their next programme.

On April 23, AFM Rezaul Karim Siddiquee, 58, was hacked to death near his house while he was awaiting the university transport at Battola intersection.

Following the incident Rezaul Karim Siddiquee's son Riasat Emtiaj Sourav filed a case with Boalia police on that day and a day after the case was transferred to detective branch of police.
