Daulatpur BL College closed sine die

Our Correspondent

KHULNA, Oct 31 : Government BL College at Daulatpur was closed sine die today following clashes between the two rival groups of students in the campus in the last two days in which at least 40 persons including seven police men were injured.

The election of the College Students Union, which was scheduled to be held tomorrow, has also been postponed until further orders.

During clashes between the workers of Islami Chhatra Shibir and Chhatra Oikya series of bomb explosions and gun shots were heard.

The Principal of BL College said that at least a dozen bombs were hurled at his residence and office last night and also this morning. He also said that his office was ransacked by the students on Sunday.

Meanwhile, Shibir in a press conference this evening at Khulna Press Club blamed Chhatra Oikya for unleashing terror in the campus and demanded inquiry into the incident. They also demanded Students Union election by November 15.

Chhatra Oikya, on the other hand, called strike in all educational institutions here on November 2 for creating law and order situation in the campus by Shibir.

A spokesman of the college said the decision to close the college was taken at a meeting of the Teachers Council held today in view of tension prevailing in the campus.

However, the university Degree Honours examination will be held on November 5 as scheduled.
