yataadi Chhatra Dal, was handed over to the detective police, for interrogation.

In Wednesday's raid, police along with the BDR personnel recovered a huge quantity of arms and ammunition from six residential halls of the university and picked up 74 persons in this connection. After screening 34 of them were freed. The arrested persons include students and outsiders.

Meanwhile, security measures were tightened in the Dhaka University campus. Contingents of police were seen patrolling the campus during the whole day yesterday. No untoward incident was reported.

All the roads passing through the campus were opened to traffic yesterday. These were closed for over a month following violent activities in the campus.
