

তারিখ 21 JAN 2016
পৃষ্ঠা ৫ ফলাম

The Daily Star

Split students stage opposing

FROM PAGE 3

Bangladesh Chhatra Federation and Samajtantrik Chhatra Front. Moreover, fine art students painted roads and announced submitting a memorandum to the DU vice chancellor on January 28. The movement's Convener Taisha Tashrin said, "The government has to build it through Matsya Bhaban and Ramna...otherwise historical places like the Raju sculpture, DU fine arts faculty, mausoleum of the three national leaders and Dhaka Gate will lose their attraction."

The supporting group, under a banner, "Students who travel in DU's Chaitali, Boishakhi and Khonika buses", formed a human chain at the base of the Raju sculpture. A few Bangladesh Chhatra League activists were found participating. DU Khonika Bus Commuters Association President Mushfiqul Hasan said they would mostly be benefited from the government's plans.

The 20.1 kilometre Mass Rapid Transit Line-6 will run from Uttara to Motijheel while DU is to have two stations, at Shahbagh and near Doyel Chattar.