

SCHOOL-BODY HEADS SC verdict on appeals against cancellation of rules today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court will pass an order today on the appeals against a High Court verdict that scrapped the rules allowing lawmakers to become governing body heads of private schools and colleges without elections.

The SC fixed the date for passing the order after holding a hearing yesterday on the leave to appeals filed by the authorities concerned of the government and capital's Viqarunnisa Noon School and College challenging the HC verdict.

Following two writ petitions, the HC on June 1 declared illegal the rules that allowed MPs to become chiefs of the committees of the educational institutions without elections.
