

BL College sues DC, KCC, AL men over grabbing its land

A CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

The authorities of Government BL College, Khulna have sued 43 people including the deputy commissioner, Khulna City Corporation and some Awami League leaders on the charge of grabbing a portion of land of the institution.

Principal Prof Gulshan Ara said she filed the case with a Khulna court on Wednesday to recover the land as per the instruction of the Ministry of Education.

Prof Gulshan said different structures, including a bank, a private university and clinics, were erected on the 1.32 acres of land.

Denying the allegation, DC Md Nazmul Ashan told The Daily Star that he would take legal actions.

KCC Mayor (in-charge) Md Anisur Rahman said he was not aware of the allegations against KCC. After knowing the overall situation they would take necessary steps, he said.

Prime accused Mostafizur Rahman Hiru, president of ward no-5 unit of the ruling AL, could not be contacted despite repeated attempts as he did not respond to the correspondent over the cellphone.
