

16 NOV 1990

পঞ্জি কলাম

The Bangladesh Observer

Mymensingh Medical College closed

Our Correspondent

MYMENSINGH. Nov. 15.—Mymensingh Medical College was declared closed sine die following a clash between rival student groups this afternoon. The male students of the college have been asked to vacate their halls by 5.30 today (Thursday) and the female students by 10.30 tomorrow (Friday).

A tense situation was prevailing in the college campus since morning and it deteriorated further when the court announced the verdict in Raisul Hasan Nomum murder case.

Raisul Hasan Numan, a 4th year student of Mymensingh Medical College, was brutally killed in 1988 and the court acquitted all 12 accused from the charge.

The college authority took the decision of closure when the situation deteriorated fast resulting in clash and damage of property.

Police contingent been deployed there and the situation brought under control.