THE undergraduate admission tests of Islamic University in Kushtia for 2019-20 academic session will begin today and end on Wednesday.

This year 61,492 candidates have applied to contest against 2,305 seats of different departments.

The admission tests of A unit under theology faculty and of B unit under business administration faculty would be held on Monday, acting registrar SM Abdul Latif told New Age.

The admission tests of B unit under humanities and social science faculty and of D unit under applied science and technology faculty would be held on Tuesday and Wednesday respectively, he added.

Proctor Pares Chandra Barman said that proper security measures had already been taken to hold the admission tests in a peaceful atmosphere without any untoward incidents.

The results of the tests will be published on November 11.

All information on the admission tests is available online at www.iu.ac.bd.
