Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology vice-chancellor Professor Mahmud Abdul Matin Bhuiyan said that teaching is an art and its quality depends mainly on the skills, attitudes and modern teaching methods of teachers applied in the classroom.

To achieve quality education, the combination of education management, education administration, skilled teaching community and timely curriculum is essential, he said, adding that regular and quality training programs are very important to develop the professional skills of teachers.

He was speaking as chief guest at the inauguration ceremony of the 'Foundation Training for Lecturers' organised by the Institutional Quality Assurance Cell at the academic council room of CUET on Sunday morning.

The event was presided over by IQAC director Professor Md Abdur Rahman Bhuiyan. The programme was moderated by IQAC section officer Md Imran Hossain.
