The government has planned to implement a five-year Fifth Primary Education Development Programme, beginning on July 1, to provide English language training to around 2.47 lakh primary school teachers, prime minister Tarique Rahman told Jatiya Sangsad on Wednesday.

Responding to Chattogram-7 lawmaker Humam Quader Chowdhury during 14th sitting of the 1st session, Tarique said that 130,000 out of 376,489 primary school teachers had already received training in English language under the ongoing Fourth Primary Education Development Programme.

The remaining teachers would be brought to the training under the fifth plan, he said.
