

HSC, equivalent exams to begin July 2

Dhaka board chief says authorities aim to complete exams within five weeks after schedule revision

18 APRIL 2026, 15:35 PM UPDATED 18 APRIL 2026, 15:53 PM EDUCATION

SHARE

Star Online Report

Star file photo

This year's Higher Secondary Certificate (HSC) and equivalent examinations will begin on July 2, Dhaka Education Board Chairman Khandokar Ehsanul Kabir said today.

The decision was finalised in a meeting held at the Secondary and Higher Education Division of the education ministry, chaired by Education Minister ANM Ehsanul Hoque Milon.

For all latest news, follow The Daily Star's Google News channel.

The conference was attended virtually by representatives of teachers, guardians and education board chairmen

Ehsanul Kabir said authorities have been instructed to complete the examinations within five weeks.

“The routine is now being prepared keeping that in mind,” he added.

The examinations were initially scheduled to begin on June 7, as decided by the Inter-Education Board Coordination Committee.

However, the date was revised to July 2 after considering opinions from stakeholders at the meeting.