Fourteen students of Dhaka University's accounting and economics department were awarded scholarships of around Tk 3 lakh at the DU on Sunday.

They were awarded these scholarships under the Accounting 1979 Batch Trust Fund and Professor Nazma Begum Trust Fund established at the DU, said a press release.

DU vice-chancellor Professor ABM Obaidul Islam was present as chief guest and handed over the scholarship cheques to the students at a ceremony at VC's conference room.

In a separate ceremony presided over by DU treasurer Professor M Jahangir Alam Chowdhury, dean of the faculty of business studies Professor Mahmud Osman Imam, dean of the faculty of social sciences Professor Taiyebur Rahman, chairperson of the accounting department Professor Md Makshudur Rahman Sarkar, acting registrar Munshi Shams Uddin Ahmed, donor member and former treasurer of Dhaka University Professor Momtaz Uddin Ahmed and former chairperson of the economics department Professor Nazma Begum, among others, were present at the time.

Accounting 1979 Batch Trust Fund was established on the initiative of the former students of the 1979 batch of the accounting department of Dhaka University.

Under this fund, eight meritorious students, including four first year students, two second year students and two third year students studying in the accounting department, are given a one-time scholarship of Tk 24,000 every year.

Meanwhile, Professor Najma Begum Trust Fund scholarships are provided to meritorious students of the department of economics.

Under this fund, six students, including two students of BSS, honours, 1st year, one student each of 2nd, 3rd and 4th year and 1 student of MSS class are provided with equal amount of scholarship every year. The amount of each scholarship is Tk 18,328.

Praising the initiative of the donor members, Professor Obaidul Islam urged the students to utilise these scholarships appropriately and focus on developing their talents and skills.
