

DU holds orientation for new students

Staff Correspondent

THE orientation for the first year undergraduate programme students of Dhaka University was held at the Teachers-Students Centre Auditorium at the DU on Sunday.

The office of the Students Counselling and Guidance organised the programme, said a press release.

Presided over by the director of the office Professor Mehzabeen Haque, Dhaka University pro-vice-chancellor, administration, Professor Sayema Haque Bidisha was present as the chief guest at the programme.

Dean of the faculty of business studies Professor Mahmud Osman Imam and acting dean of the faculty of fine arts Professor AAM Kawsar Hasan were present as special guests at the programme.

Proctor Professor Saifuddin Ahmed delivered welcome address.

Deans of various faculties, chairpersons of various departments and student advisers were present at the time.

Professor Sayema Haque called upon the students to play a responsible role in fulfilling the expectations of the family, society and nation.

She said that students must prepare themselves from now to survive in the competition of globalisation.

She called upon the students to be proficient in any foreign language in addition to the Bangla.

She said that there were various facilities, including health insurance facilities for the students of Dhaka University.