Sixteen students of University of Dhaka received scholarships worth around Tk 2.5 lakh under two memorial trust funds at a ceremony held on Tuesday.

Vice-chancellor Professor ABM Obaidul Islam distributed the cheques at the VC's conference room, while treasurer Professor M Jahangir Alam Chowdhury presided over the event, said a press release.

The scholarships were awarded under the 'Bir Muktijoddha Md Nur-uz-Zaman' and 'Bir Muktijoddha Amena Zaman' Memorial Trust Fund, established by freedom fighter Ahmed Al Zaman to support meritorious students of the department of Islamic studies.

In addition, another fund created by Neeru Kamarun Nahar provided scholarships to students of the department of physics.

According to university officials, selected students from the 2022–23 and 2023–24 academic years received Tk 15,000 each, following a special recommendation by the board of trustees, instead of the usual Tk 10,000.
