The Institutional Quality Assurance Cell of Chittagong University held an orientation seminar on the implementation of the outcome-based education curriculum at the faculty of marine sciences and fisheries' auditorium of the university in Chattogram on Wednesday.

The seminar was organised with the aim of improving and modernising the academic quality of the university, said a press release.

CU vice-chancellor Professor Mohammad Al-Forkan was present as chief guest while pro-VC, academic, Professor Mohammad Shamim Uddin Khan, and pro-VC, administration, Professor Md Kamal Uddin, were present as special guests at the seminar.

Professor Mohammad Al-Forkan said, 'With the sincere cooperation of all of you, we hope that the OBE curriculum will be successfully implemented at the CU. We want to take Chittagong University to unique heights.'

As the president and trainer of the programme, IQAC director Professor Mohammad Mosharraf Hossain said that there was no alternative to the OBE curriculum to ensure the quality of education.

'It is very important to bring this change in our teaching and evaluation system to make students skilled in line with the modern world,' he added.

Moderated by CU IQAC additional director Professor Mohammad Moslem Uddin, IQAC additional director Professor Shahadat Hossain was also present as a trainer in the workshop.

Teachers from various departments of the faculties of arts and humanities, business administration, social sciences, law and education, who are involved in conducting the undergraduate first semester courses of the 2025-26 academic year, participated in the seminar.
