Professor Mohammed Almujeaddade Alfasane has been appointed as pro-vice-chancellor, administration, of the University of Dhaka.

Following his appointment on Thursday, Professor Almujeaddade joined the office at a function at the Professor Abdul Matin Chowdhury Virtual Classroom of the university, said a press release.

DU vice-chancellor Professor ABM Obaidul Islam; outgoing pro-VC, administration, Professor Sayema Haque Bidisha; pro-VC, academic, Professor Abdus Salam; and treasurer Professor M Jahangir Alam Chowdhury, among others, were present at the programme.

Welcoming the new pro-VC, Professor ABM Obaidul Islam expressed his commitment to ensuring academic excellence, transparency and accountability at the university.

The VC also stressed the importance of performing duties with honesty, dedication and sincerity and sought cooperation from all concerned in this regard.

After assuming office, Professor Almujaaddade pledged to work sincerely to uphold the dignity and reputation of the university.

'I am one of you. I have a long association with this university. So, I will try my best to uphold the honour and dignity of the university,' he added.

He requested all concerned to refrain from offering floral greetings, sweets or any other gifts marking his appointment.
