ULAB secures 36th position globally in WURI ranking

Staff Correspondent 11 May, 2026, 01:51

The University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh has secured 36th place among the top 100 universities in the World University Rankings for Innovation 2026.

WURI president Kyung-Sung Kim made the announcement, noting that ULAB is the only Bangladeshi university to remain in WURI's Global Top 100 for six consecutive years, said a press release on Sunday.

Hosted by National Chi Nan University, Nantou, Taiwan, the achievement was announced during the sixth Annual Conference of the Hanseatic League of Universities and WURI Ceremony 2026 held in May 6–8.

Notably, a total of 1,927 universities from 96 countries participated in the WURI Rankings 2026, with seven Bangladeshi universities making it into the rankings.

Beyond the overall ranking, the University of Liberal Arts Bangladesh also earned recognition in several major categories, securing noteworthy positions: 5th in Social Impact through Knowledge Transfer, 30th in Crisis Management, 55th in Future-Oriented Responses to Global Uncertainty and Geopolitical Risk, 58th in Cost-Effectiveness Management, 61st in Digital and AI Transformation in Strategy and Management, 66th in Ethics and Integrity, 79th in Financial Impact-Driven Technology Transfer and 100th in Empowerment-Based Management.
