Varsity teachers to wear black badge today

Teachers of the country's six universities will put on black badge today (Thursday) demanding repeal of the Educational Institutions Ordinance (Law and Order) 1990, reports UNB.

Teachers of Dhaka, Rajshahi, Chittagong, Jahangirnagar, Agricultural and Engineering universities will take part in the programme.

Teachers will boycott classes full day on November 24 and observe mass hunger strike on November 28.

The Bangladesh Federation of University Teachers Association (BFUTA) gave the call at a rally at Central Shaheed Minar on Nov. 13 as part of its 10-day action programme against the Ordinance.
