

BUET rag day celebrated

BUET Correspondent

The outgoing students of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) belonging to session 1987-88, well-known as "Batch-87", celebrated their "rag-day" on Wednesday with pomp and grandeur.

In the morning, the jubilant students of final year, brought out a colourful procession in the city carrying banners and festoons.

The central rag-rally, starting from BUET campus, paraded the thoroughfares of the capital and terminated at the National Press Club.

The whole campus of BUET wore a festive look with the students celebrating their programme in different ways.

Later, in the afternoon the students were feted with a tea-party by the BUET Vice-Chancellor.

The day-long programme also included cultural functions, reminiscences of the days in BUET and games at BUET cafeteria premises.

The programme was followed by band-show at the BUET central auditorium complex in the evening.

The students of final year, belonging to "Batch-86" of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) will hold a colourful rally today (Thursday) at 10:30 a.m. in the morning as part of their "rag-day" celebration '93.

The day-long programmes will include cultural function, reminiscence of the past days and concert in the evening.
