Madrasah teachers call on President

A delegation of teachers of Isha-a-Tul Islam Model Senior Madrasah of Charhogla Barisal Sadar called on President Abdur Rahman Biswas at Bangabhaban Wednesday, reports BSS.

The delegation was led by Moulana A K M Taib, Superintendent of the madrasah.

The members of the delegation apprised the President of some of the problems of the madrasah and discussed matters relating to its development. They sought President's help and assistance for improvement of the madrasah.

Talking to them, President Abdur Rahman Biswas advised the teachers to train up their students, so that they can earn their decent living without depending on others. He said that the Holy Prophet of Islam earned his livelihood through hard work and always disliked dependence on others.

In this connection, President Biswas said that after completion of their education in the Madrasah the students can take up income-generating projects such as pisciculture and dairy farming for which bank loans are available on easy terms.

Among others, Moulana Anisur Rahman, Moulana Haroon-Or-Rashid Shahi, Moulana Habibullah, Moulvi Nazirul Islam Munshi, Mohammad Shamsul Haq, Mohammad Abdul Hannan, Mohammad Alauddin, Moulvi Montasir Mamun and Moulvi Bazlur Rahman were present on the occasion.
