Govt wants violence free campus: Sircar

Education Minister Barrister Jamiruddin Sircar on Thursday said that the present democratic government had introduced a life oriented education system for achieving overall development of the country, reports BSS.

He said we want to make the educational campus free from violence.

The Education Minister was addressing as chief guest the installation ceremony of the student's union of Dohar Nababgonj College under Dhaka district in city.

Presided over by Principal of the college Shafiuddin Khan, the function was addressed by State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism Abdul Mannan, DUCSU VP Amanullah Aman MP Mrs Farida Hasan, MP founder of the college and former State Minister Atauddin Khan, President of thana BNP Islam Khan, VP and GS respectively of the Student's Union Mohsinuddin Polash and Jahidul Hoque Jewel.

The Education Minister said, BNP believed in people and welfare-oriented polities and that was why people had given verdict in favour of BNP once again. He said the BNP government would fulfil all its commitments one by one and would remain by the side of the people.

Barrister Jamiruddin Sircar said those who are trying to create disorder and to disturb peace do not want democracy and development. He said the so-called ganoadalot was contrary to democracy and rule of law. He opined that Shaheed President Ziaur Rahman had proved that Bangladesh is not inferior to any country of the world through getting membership of the UN Security Council.

He said English would be made compulsory from Class I to degree level for establishing the image of education system at home and abroad.

State Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism Abdul Mannan, in his address, said the present government had attached top priority to education sector in the national budget. He also called upon the students and teachers to put in their efforts for maintaining peace and discipline in the campus.

Mr Amanullah Aman, MP said some opposition political parties were now creating anarchy and violence for soiling the massive development programme of the government. He said the people of the country had rejected their politics in the past and they would remain isolated from the people.

Earlier, the Education Minister formally unveiled the plaque of the newly constructed building of the college and planted saplings in the college campus.
