

অন্তর্বিদ্যা 05 JUL 1993

পত্রিকা নং ১৫

Participation of women in all spheres ensured

State Minister for Establishment Barrister Md. Aminul Hoque on Sunday said, it was the constitutional obligation of the democratic government to take steps to ensure women's participation in all spheres of National life, reports BSS.

He was addressing the concluding session of a day long seminar on "women in administration" as chief guest at Civil Service Administration Academy in Dhaka.

Presided over by Agriculture Secretary ANM Yusuf, the function was also addressed by Establishment Secretary Md. Ilasinur Rahman.

The State Minister said we have to do a lot to bring a desirable change in the overall condition of the nation. So, without any discrimination, all should shape equal responsibilities in nation building activities, he added.

Barrister Hoque said, proper education and training is of paramount importance to ensure the desired height of efficiency so literacy rate, especially for the women should be raised at the optimum level at the earliest possible time, he added.

The State Minister said, talent, capability and seniority should be the main criteria for promotion. So, everybody should be up and doing to develop efficiency through discharging duties devotedly, he added.

The State Minister assured the female government servants that the government was very much keen to meet their legitimate demands. He appreciated the capabilities of women public servants and asked them to work more devotedly with right attitude..