White, Green panels share posts in IU teachers polls

KUSHTIA, Dec 10:—BNP-backed White Panel and Pro-Jamaat-e-Islami Green Panel have shared the posts of Executive Committee of Islamic University Teachers Association, reports UNB.

Dr Musharraf Hossain of White Panel and M. Sarwar Jahan of Green Panel were elected President and General Secretary respectively in the election held at the university auditorium on Wednesday.

Among 15 Executive posts, BNP-backed panel bagged 8, including Vice-President, Joint Secretary and Treasurer while Pro-Jamaat got 7 posts with 6 executive members.

Shapla Panel jointly backed by Bangabandhu Parisad and progressive minded teachers did not get any post in the election.

Some 143 voters out of 161 cast their votes from 8.30 am to 12.30 p.m.

Meanwhile, University authority have postponed all the examinations scheduled for tomorrow (Thursday) due to unavoidable circumstances.
