BUET crisis

13 teachers' call to reconsider resignation

Staff Correspondent

All 13 teachers of Architecture Department of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology (BUET) made separate prayer to the Secretary of Syndicate of the university on Tuesday requesting the authorities concerned to reconsider the decision regarding acceptance of their resignation by the university Syndicate on April 26.

They expressed the hope in their applications that all 13 teachers would be reinstated at the department immediately to restore normal academic and administrative activities in BUET.

They said that they all would extend help and cooperation to the university authorities to improve the situation and maintain a congenial academic atmosphere in the BUET.

These 13 teachers are Prof Sham-sul Wares, Dr Mahbubur Rahman, Dr Shayer Gafur, Dr Fuad Hasan Mollik, Mamun Rashid, Sheikh Ahsanullah, Zainaf Faruque Ali, Shaheda Rahman, Dr Farida Nelufar, Dr Khandker Sabbir Ahmed, Sharmin Gani, Md Faijullah and Mostafa Khalid.

Meanwhile, the Vice-Chancellor Prof Iqbal Mahmud on Tuesday went to his office and held a meeting with BUET teachers association leaders.

The Vice-Chancellor discussed the latest situation with them and sought cooperation from all to resolve the crisis soon.

BUET will resume its all classes from Sunday next as its mid-term vacation will end on Saturday.
