Education week from Mar 7

Education week will be observed at district and divisional levels from March 7 to 9 and March 13 to 15 respectively, according to an official handout in Dhaka on Sunday, reports BSS.

The week will be observed at national level in the first week of June.

The main theme of the week this time is "education and democracy". Executive Committees at district and divisional levels for celebrating education week 1991 have already been formed.

A best college, one best secondary boys school, a girls secondary school and a madrasha will be selected at district level. District Executive Committee will select three best teachers one each from college, secondary school and madrasha. Competition on qirat, debâte, spot speech, Rabindra sangeet, Nazrul sangeet, moderns song, folk lore, classical, instrumental music and dance will be held at district levels in two groups one at Class Six to Class Ten and the other at eleventh class to higher level.

Besides, seminar or symposium on education and democracy or on education related matter and competition on this subject will be held.

The Divisional Committee will select three best college, and nine best secondary schools including three madrasha and three girls' schools on the basis of results received from different district level. Three colleges, three boys schools, three girls' schools and three madrashas will be selected from Dhaka Metropolitan area through Divisional Commissioner of Dhaka. The Divisional Committee will select 27 best teachers nine each at colleges, secondary schools, and madrashas and six from Dhaka city two each from each group and send them to Director General of Secondary and Higher Secondary Directorate for consideration at National level.
