SSC exam. from today

By A Staff Correspondent

Secondary School Certificate (SSC) Examinations under the four Education Boards of the country begin today (Saturday).

In Dhaka City, the examinations will be held under 41 centres. There are in all 144 examination centres including eight overseas centres under the Dhaka Board. A total of one lakh 13 thousand two hundred and sixty candidates—76,731 male and 36,529 female students will sit for SSC examinations under the Dhaka Board.

The Commissioner of Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP) in an order issued last week banned assembly of four persons within the radius of 200 yards of SSC examination centres during the examinations hours.

Similar arrangements for holding the examinations in a peaceful manner have been made in other parts of the country.
