Three books for each subject protested

Our Correspondent
MANIKGANJ, Aug 7:—Complete hartal was observed in all the schools and colleges of Manikganj town to protest the introduction of three books for each subject from Class VI to Class X on August 2. The hartal was called by Manikganj District Chhatra Sangram Parishad.

The students brought out a big procession in the town which paraded the main thoroughfares and held a meeting in the premises of the Deputy Commissioner.

Speakers at the meeting urged upon the authority to withdraw the decision for the introduction of three books for each subject from Class V to Class X.
